THE ARMENIAN INSURRECTION

Critical Condition of Affairs at Constantinople.

Dispatches From There Read With Eager ness in Loudon, but the Feeling is not Entirely Favorable to the Armenians, Who are Believed to Have Been Urged to Excesses by the Revolutionary Party.

London, Oct. 3,-The critical condition of affairs in Constantinople is the sensation of the day here, and all dispatches from that city are read with the greatest eagerdess. Many important messages are known to have been received at the British foreign office from Sir Paillip Currie, the British embassador at Constantinople, and the feeling here is not entirely favorable to the Armenians.

The appointment of Kismie Pasha as grand vizier, recently announced, is regarded at the foreign office as a happy of the second of the secon circumstance at the present juncture of affairs. He has the reputation of being one of the most broad minded and enlightened statesman of the Ottoman empire and he is looked upon ac being the right man in the right place.

It is true that during his last term of office Kiamie Pasha by a certain faction at least was looked upon as cherishing undue Anglophile ideas, but the hope is expressed here that he will be able to successfully grapple with the situation and suppress the disorders at Constanti-nople before matters reach a stage which would call for the interference of the powers.

In spite of the assurances to the contrary of the Armenian committee of this city, the belief prevails in official circles here that the rioting at Constantinople was really a deliberately planned uprising, brought about by the Armenian agliators, who are desirous of forcing the hands of the powers in order to bring about direct interference upon the part of Great Britain, France and Russia in the administration in Armenia, The St. James Gazette points out this The St. James Gazztte points out this afternoon how the events which have just occurred at Constantinople were correctly told by the Associated Press, which, in a dispatch published here on April 19, told how the patriotic party of Armenia had been fomenting a general riot, and that the leaders promised that the chief attack would be made on the the chief attack would be made on the city of Constantinople itself, and the brunt of the fighting would be borne by the Armenians resident therein.

Owing to the critical situation here the envoys of the powers met at the Austrian embassy to day and the Ger-man gunboat Lorely has been ordered to remain at the disposal of the Ger-man embassy. It is now known defi-nitely that at least five Armenians were killed after they had been ar-rested on Monday, and this has caused great indignation. great indignation.

According to the police reports only twenty persons were killed and eighty wounded during the rioting on Monday, but more reliable reports place the number killed at probably over 200.

News has been received here from Damascus that the French conul at that place had been attacked by a mob and grossly insulted and pelted with mud. The French embassy has complained to the porte and has demanded prompt redress for the outrage.

Earthquake Shock an i Further Murders. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct, 3.—To add to the state of terror prevailing here a slight earthquake shock was experienced yesterday. This, with the rioting and bloodshed, the imprisonment of about 500 Armenians, the killing of prisoners in cold blood and the presence of troops under arms at all points is well calculated to excite even the most phlegmatic Turk. phlegmatic Turk.

The rioting and blood-letting which began on Monday, as exclusively detailed in these dispatches, was renewed on Tuesday evening, in spite of all the precautions taken by the authorities of this much disturbed city. On Tuesday the principal rioting was the work of the Softas, Mahommedan theological students, who chased and beat with bludgeons every Armenian they met

During Tuesday night a mob of Softas and Turks attacked the house of a lead-ing Armenian, Kasim Pasha, storming the building and threatening its de-struction, and killing several persons who were unable to escape from it in time. This mob also assaulted a cafe frequented by Armenians, and twenty of the unfortanate people who were found there were beaten to death with blud-geons. To the disgrace of the authorgeons. To the disgrace of the authorities not a single policeman appeared on the scene, and no attempt was made to sive the lives of the Armenians.

The authorities have now stationed troops and police at every threatened point, and it is asserted that there is no danger of any further research.
